Punta Cana Resort Golf is a Par 72 with 18 holes Golf Course - Championship Golf Course. It is the most recent project developed by Punta Cana Resort and built by the well-known architect Pete B. Dye with 7 holes along the magnificent white sandy beaches that characterize the region. This fabulous resort is partly owned by designer Oscar De La Renta and singer Julio Iglesias 809 541-2714 (x 15), or (800) 221-2262 y (800) 972-2139 Fax: (809) 541-2286 e-mail: _ventas@puntacana.com

The Faldo Legacy Course: In Roco Ki- This par 73 course was designed by Nick Faldo and stretches to 7118 yards from its championship tees with approximately 100 bunkers strategically integrated into 3 significantly different landscapes. Your round starts with breathtaking Caribbean views from the 1st hole, set on headlands rising 300 feet out of the surf. The 3rd descends into a tropical sanctuary where 300-year old mangrove trees and lagoons line the fairways. The 9th hole features a double dogleg that opens to spectacular views of Roco Ki's pearl white beach. As the course rises to the backend of 15, you will be set up for a dramatic return to the headlands. Perched on the cliff's edge, the 17th is a magnificent par 3, followed by a spectacular par-5 on the 18th, with two carries over water and ocean breezes.
